

As your child develops higher level thinking skills, a whole new level of exploration opens up. Our Early Foundations Preschool program gives your child rich experiences for learning literacy, math, science and social studies to make sure he's ready for pre-kindergarten. Fine-motor activities like using child-size scissors help them become more independent, while physical activities like jumping and dancing help them learn new skills in leaps and bounds.