

Once your child is in school, you may need support before and after school. That's where our innovative Catch the Wave program comes in. They will have guidance and dedicated space to do homework, learn leadership, and get in some fun fitness activities.