

Prekindergarten

We use a research based curriculum that uses the current trends to help children get ready for kindergarten. We focus on the concepts that will be needed when going to kindergarten. Journals help the children with printing skills while small group activities encourage cooperative play. We offer lots learning activities while children still have fun playing and interacting with other children.

