

Infants

Our warm and caring teachers help your child develop confidence and trust through our infant program with a personalized developmental plan that grows with your child.

Your child's day revolves around a meaningful routine that respects his own patterns for sleeping, eating, playing and learning new skills.

