

Catch the Wave School-Age

A specific area is designed and stocked with supplies for children to work on homework!

Our classroom is designed to keep school-agers motivated and focused in a fun and stimulating environment!

Our schedule allows for children to work independently or in a group using materials relating to literacy, math, art, and science.

Group discussions allow the children to gain new knowledge and build on information they already know!

